CORRESPONDENCE AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monthly Thank You Video - It's an "Arts" Thank You

We celebrate Indian Hill High School (IHHS) senior Jude Jamison, selected by the National Honor Society (NHS) as an NHS Scholarship semifinalist. Jamison, who currently serves as the IHHS NHS president, is a two-year member of the elite organization which recognizes exemplary leadership.

We congratulate the Indian Hill High School (IHHS) Competitive Writing Team for showcasing their exceptional literary talent at the JustWrite Central Ohio Regional Tournament held at Dublin Coffman High School in Columbus on Saturday, February 10. The event saw participation from 10 high schools across the region, bringing together a total of 90 writers competing in two divisions. In a remarkable achievement, Indian Hill High School's very own junior, Lillie Waltz, competed in Division 2, which includes juniors and seniors, and emerged victorious, securing first place. This outstanding accomplishment not only highlights Lillie's exceptional writing skills, but also qualifies her for the prestigious state competition scheduled to take place in May at the University of Findlay.

We celebrate Indian Hill Middle School students Ava Mehzaad and Devyanshie Rautela for winning the regional #STEMorbitsOhio Design Challenge! The Braves were one of 21 teams that advanced to the state competition which took place on Friday, February 23 in Columbus, from a total of 120 students from 32 schools who competed in the regional event.

We celebrate the achievement of Indian Hill Elementary School distinguished educator Jackie O'Brien, honored with the prestigious Innovator in Instruction Award by Learn21. This accolade is in recognition of her exceptional contributions to digital learning and her unwavering dedication to enhancing student engagement through innovative digital methodologies. O'Brien's educational journey is marked by her active pursuit of professional development and leadership within the Indian Hill Elementary School community. She has been instrumental in developing the school's state-of-the-art iLab through extensive research and grant applications, including significant support from the Indian Hill and Koch Foundations. Her efforts have secured over $100,000 since 2014, ensuring the continued impact of the iLab for years to come.

We celebrate the Indian Hill Middle School (IHMS) Future City Team for earning the top spot in the Ohio Future City Competition, held January 20 at the Eastland Career Center in Columbus. The team's exceptional performance allowed them to advance to the next level where they placed 16th internationally. The winning team, comprised of students Isha Jha, Anya Freed, and Sydney Hoalst, invested countless hours in research, design, and preparation.

The Indian Hill School District is recognizing six talented student-artists who received regional recognition in the Governor's Awards for the Arts. The honored students from Indian Hill High School include Yvonne Gao with four pieces, Belinda Zhong with three, Alyssa Kerr with two, and Vivian Jenkins, Heidi Schellhas, and Jette Schulten, each with one piece recognized. One student, Yvonne Gao, has had two pieces selected for display at the state level, showcasing her work as some of the finest in Ohio. The competition, which saw 842 regional entries, was intensified at the state level, with 275 pieces selected. Gao's award-winning pieces will be showcased at the James A. Rhodes State Office Tower.

We congratulate Indian Hill Middle School students Haddyn Backlund, Kaz On, and Olivia Zhao for advancing to the Power of Pen State Competition after a successful regional event. The seventh-grade team secured a third-place finish, while the eighth-grade team placed seventh.

Ray Noble was recognized for his retirement. Ray was employed by Indian Hill for the past 40 years - 29 years in the maintenance department (retiring in 2013) and 26 seasons as Indian Hill's diving coach.

The Indian Hill School District has celebrated a historic performance for its Indian Hill High School DECA team, which qualified for the DECA International Career Development Conference (ICDC) in April. The team, consisting of 73 students, competed in a pool of 2,000 DECA members in Columbus. The event was filled with cheers, tears, and great memories of competition and friendship. Students Sophia Chen and Jackson Kaster completed their term as DECA State Officers, representing their school, community, and OHIO DECA with dignity and effort. The students who earned accolades included Sophia Chen, Jackson Kaster, Ben Liebel, Nick Rinala, Sam Simonds, Liz George, Arjun Velayutham, Penn Picton, Gea Eshleman, Alyssa Kerr, Nate Bunkowske, Paige Rabenold, Macy Overton, Kaylie Withers, Dakota Spurrier, Anya Govil, Drew Boylan, Madden Phelps, McKenzie Stoddard, Jonah Bonomo, Brandon Yang, Derek Zee, Ava Buffetta, Eli Camp, JC Chen, Crisper Chabris, Jenna O'Driscoll, Samantha Kayne, Jessie Robinson, Marly Cady, Merrie Leder, Alex Bunkowske, Claire Wilkes, Dan DeBow, Brady Evans, Jack Gerber, Yvonne Gao, Jenna Arnold, Vivian Whaley and Mia Bolden.
