What does it mean to be Brave?
A message from Indian Hill Superintendent Dr. Mark Miles

The Class of 2018 – academically decorated, artistically talented, and athletically competitive – defines it.

The story we present in this publication honoring the Class of 2018 is but a snapshot of the success they achieved at the completion of their 13-year journey through kindergarten to senior year that we – staff, parents, and community – had the privilege to witness and help author. From their first days as young scholars learning letters and numbers to their final days as award-winning graduates – these Braves demonstrated a commitment to excellence in learning, leadership, innovation, and service that will continue to endure. In an arena of red and white, packed with emotion of the past we honored, the milestone we celebrated, and the exciting future we anticipate – in celebration they moved their tassels and tossed their caps.

It was this symbolic gesture that announced the time had come to show the world what it means to be Brave.

To the Class of 2018, I thank you for leaving your mark. Your story is both incredible, and incomplete. I – along with your entire Brave family – look forward to seeing the chapters that are yet to unfold. No matter how far you travel from home – always remember: We are and always will be Braves.

In service to our children,

Mark T. Miles

“So now it is your turn; it is your moment. The world is out there and is waiting for you. What will be your calling? What is your journey going to look like? Who will you become and more importantly who will you inspire to be great along the way? Be fearless. Be kind. Be adventurous. Never settle for mediocrity.”
